A day out in Abergavenny

Spend the day combining town and country pleasures on a visit to beautiful Abergavenny, the gateway to the Brecon Beacons National Park.

With an impressive 19th Century Market Hall and some excellent shops in town, the morning will fly by quite happily. The main market day is Tuesday – but there are alternative markets many days of the week – check with the Visitor Information Centre (01873 853254)

For those who like to take some culture with their lunch, a visit to the recently restored 12th Century Tithe Barn and Food Hall and adjacent St Mary's Church might hit the spot. The Food Hall prides itself on its tasty, locally sourced, contemporary Welsh cuisine and you could follow coffee with a wander around the free exhibition which houses a tapestry that was hand stitched by Abergavenny residents to commemorate the millenium in 2000..

After lunch, a gentle riverside walk in Castle Meadows is always an enjoyable way to spend the afternoon. The river Usk has been designated a SSSI and teems with wildlife. If you are lucky you may even see one of the resident kingfishers, but providing the weather is on your side, fantastic views of the Sugarloaf and Blorenge mountains' are guaranteed.

Next take a tour around St Mary's Church and see the unique 'Jesse figure' carved from a single piece of oak in the 15th Century, it's the only one in the U.K and probably the world. St Mary's also has the second largest single collection of medieval monuments in a parish church in the U.K, extending from 13th Century to about 1510 in wood alabaster and freestone.
